Thank you for joining the webinar.
Housekeeping

- If you have problems with the webinar audio, you can join by phone at 1-646-558-8656; Webinar ID: 918-5647-1952
- All participants will be muted during the webinar.
- If you have questions during the presentation, please type them into the Q&A box located at the bottom of your screen. Your questions will be visible to the moderator and presenters only.
- The webinar is being recorded and will be shared shortly after the event.
- Members of the press may be joining today’s webinar.
Who We Are

What we do: Through the expertise of our 60+ scholars and staff, CPR creates powerful tools and strategies for policymakers and the public to advance policies and processes that ensure the safety, health and well-being of people, their communities, and our environment.

Our focus areas:

- Protecting the public through sensible safeguards of public health, workers’ rights, consumer well-being, and the environment
- Securing good government that is responsive to the public’s needs
- Creating a sustainable future in which we all can thrive
Panelists

Sulma Guzmán
Social Justice Attorney
Centro de los Derechos del Migrante, Inc.

Kate Suisman
Attorney and Campaigns Coordinator
Northwest Workers’ Justice Project

Tom McGarity
CPR Board Member
and Member Scholar

Sid Shapiro
CPR Board Member
and Member Scholar
1. What is wrong with the current system for reporting to OSHA or state agencies that a workplace is unsafe or unhealthy?
2. What is a “private right of action”?
3. How would a private right of action benefit workers?
4. Would a private right of action help frontline workers affected by COVID?
5. Does a private right of action already exist in other laws?
6. What would legislation to create a private right of action need to include?
7. What challenges are expected at the federal level?
8. If I wanted to push for legislation in my state, what do I need to know? What obstacles might I run into?
Questions?